STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The lists of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes were last revised over ten years ago, on the recommendation of the Backward Classes Commission. These lists have been criticised in recent years, in Parliament and outside, on the ground that they contain many anomalies. For instance, some castes, and tribes have been treated as Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, only in certain specified areas of a State. Again, some castes and tribes which deserve to be treated as Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes are not so recognised; while others which do not deserve such treatment have been included in the lists.

It has therefore been considered necessary to revise the lists further. The proposals for revision were examined in consultation with the State Governments and Union Territory Administrations, the Commissioner for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, and the Registrar General of India. They were also scrutinised by a high level Advisory Committee appointed for the purpose. The opinion of the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe Members of Parliament and State Ministers were also ascertained. This Bill has been prepared after a careful consideration of all views and aspects brought to the notice of Government during these consultations.

The alterations in the existing lists will involve a change in the population of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes and consequently, in the number of reserved seats in Parliament and the State Legislative Assemblies. As the population figures for some of the castes and tribes, as proposed to be specified in the revised lists, are not available in the 1961 Census Report, necessary provision has been made in the Bill to empower the Census authority to estimate the population of such castes and tribes. Provision has also been made in the Bill to enable the Election Commission to redelimit constituencies if necessary.

NEW DELHI;
The 8th August, 1967.

ASOKA MEHTA.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 5 (1) of the Bill requires the Registrar-General, India, to ascertain or estimate, in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made by the Central Government, the population at the census of 1961 of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes in any State, if the list of such castes or tribes in relation to that State is varied by the Bill. As the manner in which the population should be ascertained or estimated is a matter of detail, it has been left to be regulated by rules. The delegation of rule-making power is of a routine and normal character.
